

The Gift of Prophecy

By

Stacey Dean – PMAFA, C.H.T.

Happy 10th Anniversary Sean David Morton and The Delphi Associates Newsletter!

Some people enter your life... give you support in some way... and thereby further your life's mission greatly. – My eternal gratitude and heartfelt thanks to Sean David Morton for publishing the Delphi Associates Newsletter, a support system for prophets, and the beautiful and talented Melissa Thomson Morton, the wind beneath his wings.

I write for several publications and everything I write is published, however, the articles I enjoy writing the most are the ones I write for the Delphi Associates Newsletter. There are two reasons why this is so.

Firstly, because I know that what I am writing will be read by kindred souls – people, who like myself, have an open mind, an open heart, and who think outside the box.

Secondly, because the publisher, Sean David Morton, is a spiritual, down to earth young man who truly understands the definition of a prophet – a person who speaks for God, an interpreter of God's Will. Sean recognizes and appreciates those who have the Gift of Prophecy. More importantly, unselfishly, he provides the support system that allows these individuals to deliver the messages that come from God's lips to our ears.

Sean David Morton does not consider himself a prophet. However, those who are astounded by the accurate predictions he publishes in his newsletter, or gives out during his many radio and television interviews, have labeled him a prophet. Sean will modestly tell you that his accurate information and predictions come from the fact that he has devoted many years towards training himself to be a more aware, sensitive individual. Well, I am here to tell you the adage (an old saying that has been popularly accepted as a truth), "It takes one, to know one," says it all.

Perhaps if I tell you how Sean and I met, you will come to an understanding of why I believe Sean David Morton is...

The Prophet – Interpreter of God's Will

Dateline – Late December 1997: It was a beautiful winter morning in Las Vegas, Nevada, and I was enjoying my first cup of coffee when my telephone rang. I answered with my usual greeting, "Hello... this is Stacey."

The voice answered. "Hi, Stacey. This is Sean David Morton. I heard from a local radio talk show host here in California that you are one of America's ten top psychic astrologers, and I'd like to discuss a few things with you... see if you can give me confirmation regarding some predictions I plan to announce on the Art Bell Show in a few days."

Needless to say, I was flabbergasted. Sean David Morton was calling me to ask for confirmation of some of his predictions! How was this possible?

Anyone who is interested in prophecy, metaphysics, UFOs, or the world of the paranormal has heard and recognizes the name, Sean David Morton. Anyone who listens to the radio show, Coast to Coast AM, usually known as, The Art Bell Show, knows the name, Sean David Morton. Every time Art would interview Sean David, orders for tapes of the program would sky rocket. It seems the listeners just can't get enough of him. Noteworthy, also, is the fact that all of Sean David's appearances as a guest on Coast to Coast radio shows are always re-broadcast, no doubt due to the many requests from the millions of listeners who follow Sean's predictions and are genuinely interested in what he has to say.

Well, Sean's first phone call to me was nearly six years ago. The rest, as they say, is history. Since that phone call, I have had the distinct pleasure of conferencing with him on a regular basis. His invitation to me to write articles for The Delphi Associates Newsletter has become a great source for documenting my own predictions, as well as, confirming some of his. Best of all, as I stated earlier, it has allowed me to meet kindred souls – people like you.... the readers of the newsletter. But there's more....

Dateline – October 1, 1998: A most auspicious day. It was a warm, Indian summer morning in Las Vegas. My telephone rang. "Hello.... This is Stacey."

"Hi, Stacey." It was Sean David Morton. "Today's my birthday, my 40th ... the "Big Four O," and I'm going to celebrate it on Art Bell's show tonight. I agreed to do the show, even though it's my birthday, because I have a feeling it's going to be.... Well, I don't quite know why. I just feel I have to do it, even though my friends are throwing me a big birthday bash tonight. I know I'm upsetting some of them by cutting out early to do Art's show. But I just feel I've got to do this. Can you check my chart, and any other charts you feel pertinent? I'll call you later this afternoon. We'll conference then." I wished him Happy Birthday, and ended the call.

At this point, I need to give you a little background information. Sean has been a regular guest on Coast to Coast Am radio shows since the early 1990's, but up to that moment in time (10/01/98), as regards my working with Sean, he had appeared on Art Bell's radio show in December 1997, twice in February, March, and August of 1998. Each time, he gave specific dates when President Bill Clinton would be drawn into the Monica Lewinsky scandal, announce his denial of the affair, admit the indiscretion, be impeached, and the major stock market decline in August 1998. Sean had the premonitions. Using astrology to examine Bill Clinton's horoscope, as well as those of the U.S. stock markets, I was able to confirm the events and supply the dates. Our success rate was uncanny and astounded millions. The combined energies, Yin and Yang, and the joint effort, was rewarded with information that proved to be extremely accurate.

Back to October 1, 1998. I worked on Sean's charts for hours that day. As usual, his feelings were correct. He was going to have a very auspicious year indeed. A year filled with many bittersweet events that would influence his life for several years to come. But most importantly, it was going to be the year he was going to meet the love of his life.

When Sean called back later that afternoon, ironically, one of his first questions was, “When am I going to meet my lady? You know, the one that is going to make me feel special.”

Of course, during the conference, I did tell Sean that he was going to meet his special lady very soon. He was happy to hear my prediction, but expressed some disbelief that it would happen soon. Actually, “soon” turned out to be two months and thirteen days later. But I am getting ahead of myself. Forgive me. I just get so excited when I relate this story.

You’ve got to admit, it would be an auspicious occasion just to be able to celebrate your 40th birthday by doing a radio show with Art Bell. And as The Universe would have it, it was the Divine Perfect Way for Sean David Morton to begin his very auspicious year!

During the broadcast, Sean acknowledged me as his personal astrologer, thanked me for my contributions of enlightenment, and billed me as the Premier Associate of his Delphi Associate Newsletter. This is another quality I admire about Sean. He respects my work, appreciates my dedication, and gives me credit for my contributions and confirmations.

At the closing moments of the broadcast, Sean gave the listening audience my name and phone number, and by doing so, created a series of profound events that brought wonder-filled changes to both his life and mine.

Melissa Thomson was listening to that broadcast. She made note of my name and phone number, and a few days later, called to set up a personal consultation with me. To make a long story short, on December 13, 1998, (exactly two months and thirteen days after Sean’s 40th birthday celebration) at one of his seminars at Caesar’s Palace here in Las Vegas, Nevada, I introduced Melissa to Sean. In August 2002, Melissa Thomson became Mrs. Sean David Morton. And once more, the gift of prophecy prevailed.

Sean David Morton affectionately labels me, “Stacey Dean, the mistress of the stars; one of the top astrologers in the United States; an intuitive,” and on, and on, and on. To all these labels I would say... Sean, a rose by any other name, is still a rose. He is always careful not to use the word, prophet. But remember, he doesn’t label himself a prophet, and neither do I, except....

Prophecy – the gift of speaking under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

I know that Sean David Morton always prays for guidance and direction before doing any of his work. Those who are familiar with my writings, or who have had a personal consultation with me, know that I always pray before doing my work. I don’t know what Sean’s prayer is, but I can share mine with you.

“Heavenly Father, I ask for guidance, protection and direction. I further request that the words, wisdom, and knowledge be thine, and not mine...let it flow through me, and not come from me.”

Experience has taught me that all prayers are answered. I trust and know that all thoughts I have after saying that prayer, come from God. Prophet or not, I must be doing something right and I offer the following as testimonials....

From God's Lips to My Ears

Dateline - March 20, 2003: A day of wondering if the gift of prophecy is a blessing or a curse. At 5:50 P.M., my telephone rang. "Hello....this is Stacey."

A familiar voice replied, "Hi Stacey, this is Sean. You know I'm going to be on Coast to Coast tonight with George Noory?"

"Yes, Melissa called and told me a few days ago," I replied.

Sean continued. "I've been gathering information and preparing for the show. I've just finished reviewing your article in the last newsletter. Looks like you're right on target with the dates you predicted as to when the war with Iraq is going to begin. You did hear about the bombing yesterday of the "target of opportunity" didn't you?"

"Yes, last night. I saw President Bush's speech. Iraq is eleven hours ahead of us in the Pacific Time Zone. That does get confusing." I answered.

"Listen, Stace. I've got all my information together, but I just felt I should call you before I wrap all of this up and do the show. Do you have anything you want to contribute?" Sean asked.

"Yes, I do, but I'll have to call you later. Right now, I'm waiting for someone to pick me up for an appointment. I'll call you as soon as I get back."

I wasn't able to call Sean until just a couple hours before he had to do the radio show. During our phone call, I dropped a "bomb" of my own.

"Hey Sean, I did a chart on the "target of opportunity" bombing, March 20, 2003 at 5:35 A.M., Baghdad Time, Baghdad, Iraq. Guess what? They got him!" I announced.

"Are you sure? Are you positively certain?" he asked.

"Yep. I also did a horary horoscope. I asked the question, 'Is Saddam Hussein dead?' and the answer I come up with is....YES! Not only is Saddam dead, but so is his oldest son. I don't remember his name, but the chart clearly shows, the oldest son was killed also." I said emphatically.

Well, perhaps we made history, again. At the beginning of the Coast to Coast broadcast later that evening, Sean did make the announcement regarding Saddam Hussein and his older son's deaths. Needless to say, George Noory pumped Sean for all the information he could. The program is recorded and the prediction is documented. And while government officials cannot decide if Saddam Hussein is alive or dead because they need more than an astrological determination, let me put your mind at ease, he's dead.

And the testimonials continue. The following excerpts have been taken from my articles published and documented in The Delphi Associates Newsletter. I've listed the volumes, issue numbers, and dates of publication for verification. In bold, italicized print are predictions that have happened.

The Axis of Evil

Iraq's Periods of Vulnerability - Transiting Pluto will oppose Iraq's natal Venus and conjunct the chart's natal Saturn several times over the next two years setting off the ill effects of the solar eclipse energy beginning with the time period of February 1 – May 14, 2003. The most critical dates of that period are March 22, 23, 24, 2003. (As we all know by now, the Shock and Awe Campaign began at approximately 10 P.M., Baghdad Time on the evening of March 21, 2003, and continued for days afterwards.)

The Plutonian contact with Iraq's Venus and Saturn occurs a total of three times during the next 2 years due to the retrograde motion of Pluto. Retrograde motion is when the planet slows down in its orbit thereby "passing over the same degree of influence more than once". February through May 2003 will bring the first contact with Pluto that will create circumstances and events bringing major changes to the country's economics, government, health, and the land itself.

Contact during this time period from Pluto with these two planets will, in all probability, begin the military campaign against Saddam Hussein presently being considered by President Bush and his advisors. It goes without saying this will be a difficult time period for the people of Iraq. Unexpected demands and responsibilities arise, and every weak link within their government and its leader will be exposed.

The difficulties Iraq's people must endure, brought on by the war, escalate during December of 2003 and July 2004. Iraqi citizens will not find some measure of recovery until October of 2004.

In previous columns that I have written and had published in the Delphi Associates Newsletter since 1999, I have tried to make all of you aware of the troubled times that lay ahead for our nation and the world. I distinctly remember what I wrote for the column published in the fall of 1999 informing everyone about the four solar eclipses occurring in the year 2000. The interpretations of those eclipses were taken directly from astrological textbooks and foretold of dire events. I remember advising that this rare occurrence would bring, "A major turning point in history. People will band together for a common cause. Confusion may reign but the long-term effects are those of rebuilding and transformation. After the dust has settled, the rebuilding starts and the consequences of this reshaping will have far reaching effect." (The dire events that occurred in the United States September 11, 2001, is how the interpretation of this solar eclipse manifested. It did produce a major turning point in history. People are banding together for a common cause – to defeat terrorism worldwide.)

Hindsight is 20/20. The events of 9/11/01 in the United States of America certainly have the people of our nation banding together for a common cause. However, I also remember, and remind you, that two of those same four eclipses overshadow George W. Bush's natal Sun and Ascendant. These are very personal points in one's horoscope, and in this case portend physical danger for our president.

In one part of my column, Predictions for a President – The George W. Bush Years, published in the Delphi Associates Newsletter in April 2000, I wrote...

Your third year as President, as indicated not only by your Solar Return 2003 but additional astrological data as well, advises your health is most vulnerable. There are indications of physical danger from an accident or personal attack, as well as a heart attack. The most dangerous period of time is between May and September 2003. I trust and will pray this warning will come to your awareness, and the necessary precautions will be taken to change these circumstances and events.

The Solar Return Taurus ascendant projects an image of being more realistic and stubborn than usual. You will be tenacious and persevering. Heaven help anyone who stands in the way of what you consider progress through your administration. The Capricorn midheaven assures achievement of your objectives, but you make dangerous enemies in the process. (To date, President Bush is criticized by world leaders around the globe. Even most citizens of the U.S. do not like the fact that he has taken away some of their personal freedoms by signing the Patriot Act Papers.)

Hard aspects to Saturn and the Moon indicates the health of your parents is precarious, particularly your mother. This aspect further advises that you use caution when dealing with women, and it can also indicate, "a nation in mourning".

In conclusion, after studying all of the charts for Iraq, the Hussein-Iraq presidency, and Saddam Hussein, I now know that war between the United States of American and Iraq is inevitable. I also know that however much pain and suffering the people of this great nation will have to endure, because of this war, it will not be as great as that with which I expect President George W. Bush will have to contend.

Volume VIII, Issue #78, January 20, 2002 – Predictions for the Year 2002

Israel – Pushed to the Limit

"Both Prime Minister Sharon and Israel's horoscopes are heavily afflicted in 2002. International pressure and constraints prevail, however, Palestine's aggressiveness escalates to a point of no return. The most dangerous time periods for an all out war are February, March and June of 2002." (Indeed, these turned out to be the time periods when Palestine's suicide bombers got extremely aggressive, and to date, 4/7/03, Israel gets bolder and bolder with its retaliation tactics.)

Middle East Woes

The young King of Jordan discovers he will not be able to rely on an unstable ally. Keep your eye on Iraq, your majesty, and prepare yourself for a financial crisis. (As reported on the television program, Sixty Minutes, Sunday April 6, 2003, approximately 70 percent of the people of Jordan are loudly protesting the fate of Iraq. They are questioning the King of Jordan's support for President Bush and the United States.)

Volume VI, Issue 71, May 25, 2001

Prophecy for a President – The George W. Bush Years

Your 2001 Solar Return midheaven is in the critical degree of 29 degrees Cancer 57 minutes indicating a great deal of emotional stress which will begin to affect your health, particularly your stomach and digestive system. This chart's ruler is Venus, and she is also in a critical degree, 0 degrees Gemini 4 minutes, and hard aspected. This indicates mental stress and further validates the need to guard your health.

(Besides almost choking to death on a pretzel, I'm sure our president has had more than his share of stomach problems these past two years. The toll this much stress has created, will begin to manifest as illness during 2003/2004.)

Mars, out of bounds and in the 2nd house, indicates you will have to deal with serious problems both within our nation, and our nation's military forces.

(The events of September 11, 2001, created unimaginable challenges to the governing bodies of our country, and there are serious problems that need to be corrected, as I stated, both within our nation, and in our nation's military forces; from forming the Homeland Security Agency; strengthening the military; and we now realize, one year later, that we must also deal with financial burdens created by the events of September 11, 2001!)

You will have to make decisions regarding taking military action in various "hot spots" where the U. S. has a vested interest or pledged support. One of your greatest concerns will be the Israel/Palestine situation.

(This planetary energy manifested in the form of President Bush's decision to take military action in Afghanistan, and his current determination "to war with Iraq," not to mention billions of American tax payers dollars "pledged to support" to Saudi Arabia, Egypt and other Middle Eastern countries. This is like tying a pork chop (pun intended) around a dog's neck to get the dog to play with you. Furthermore, is not our nation plagued with Muslim Extremists destructive activities due to the U.S. policy and association with Israel?)

Negative Martian energy also indicates disagreements between you and Colin Powell, an Aries Sun Sign individual. You two will, "buck heads," so to speak.

(This specific prediction has truly manifested exactly as foretold. As of mid- December 2002, it is common knowledge that President George W. Bush and Colin Powell have major differences and frequent disagreements regarding what "path" to follow in order to safeguard our nation.)

Mars and Pluto are conjoined in the 2nd house of your Solar Return, both are very hard aspected, and retrograde. This indicates a downward trend in the U.S. Stock Market, the nation's economy, business, and employment. Financial problems plague government, major corporations, businesses, and the nation's population.

(This planetary configuration manifested as the financial scandals within some of our nation's largest and most "successful?" corporations, i.e., Enron, Arthur Andersen Accounting Firms, World Com and Global Crossing, just to name a few. And because Pluto is involved, these financial fiascos will most certainly get very nasty before "accountability and responsibility" policies will be established. Additionally, the U.S. stock market will not look attractive to potential investors until this mess is cleaned up and the threat of the U.S. going to war is resolved. This is just common sense!)

You will not be able to successfully "promote the general welfare," nor your tax cut agenda until after Mars stations direct July 19, and Pluto moves forward August 23, 2001.

(As of this writing, 4/7/03, President Bush has dismissed Treasury Secretary, Paul O'Neill and his Economic Adviser, Lawrence Lindsey... too little, too late to "promote the general welfare"? Tax incentives and relief must be adopted or our economy will continue to crumble!)

Be aware of deception and lack of support from your cabinet members, and White House staff. Your foundation is unstable...prepare for the worst and hope for the best! (Too bad you did not heed this warning, Mr. President. You may have saved yourself some grief and embarrassment. You continue to appoint "advisors and helpers" that prove unsatisfactory, incapable or unsuited for the task selected. Your most recent difficulty being the appointment of Henry Kissinger to head the 9/11/01 investigation... and within days... Mr. Kissinger resigned!)

You will have to rely more on your own intuition and prayer for guidance.

The best piece of news I can give you is your approval rating climbs steadily upward in weekly polls conducted by major publications.

(Throughout his presidency, George W. Bush has had unprecedented high approval ratings in various public opinion polls.)

Volume V, Issue # 56, October 21, 1999

Solar Eclipses and Future Events

"The "image" of our nation will reach an all time low as transiting Pluto conjoins the natal ascendant, the image you present to the world. (As of this writing, 4/7/03, the reputation and image of The United States has been under attack by every major country around the globe; France, Germany, Russia, China, and many other nations too numerous to list.)

Volume VI, Issue #65, October 20, 2000

Election in The Stars – Bush or Gore?

“The year is 2000. November 7, we, the concerned citizens of the United States of America will go to the polls and elect a new president.

At this point, I’m sure you are looking for a prediction from me as to which one of the candidates will win the Presidential Election 2000. My track record is documented in the January 1992 Las Vegas Sun newspaper feature article published 1/3/92. In that article I predicted, “A Democratic Dark Horse will win the 1992 Presidential Election,” and of course that was Bill Clinton.

In October of 1996, on my Las Vegas radio show, Stacey Dean – The Cosmic Reporter (taped for future verification), I predicted Bill Clinton would be re-elected, but would not serve his term in office. He has been impeached, and for all intents and purposes, is not doing his job. He is what our country’s history labels a Lame Duck President. Oh well, from a dark horse to a lame duck....in my opinion that sums up his legacy perfectly!

The year is 2000. In the June issue of the Delphi Associates Newsletter (Solar Eclipses – The Prophets of Doom), I wrote, “And Bill’s ‘right hand man,’ Al Gore, will NOT win his place in the sun,” meaning he would not be elected President. I stand by that prediction.

My conscience dictates I must vote for George W. Bush....and coincidentally....he is who I predict will win the 2000 Presidential Election.” (And don’t we all know the outcome of this prediction. George W. Bush became President of The United States of America.)

Volume V, Issue # 57, November 25, 1999

Solar Eclipses and Global Chaos!

“No appreciable rise of interest rates during the first quarter insures the real estate market’s success. If you haven’t had your property appraised in the past five years, and you’ve kept it in good condition, you could be pleasantly surprised at the current market value. It’s a seller’s market!”

“The U.S. stock market begins a gradual, but steady decline. Points continue to fall throughout the summer of 2000. The U.S. stock markets continue to fluctuate to such a degree that it is purely a ‘speculative venture,’ and cannot, even remotely, be considered an investment.” (To date, the U.S. stock markets are in a deplorable state. Potential investors are being scared away by global unrest. Experience has taught me to respect the energy of solar eclipses and what they portend.)

At this point, I’m sure you’re wondering if some of my predictions have been incorrect. To be honest with you, yes... but not enough to count. And for those, you’re going to have to re-read back issues of The Delphi Associates Newsletter.

Once more, I want to thank both Sean David and Melissa Morton for their tireless efforts to continue publishing The Delphi Associates Newsletter. It is a monumental task. I know how much all of you enjoy the publication because you tell me so when you order your forecasts from me. Let them hear from you. Confirmation is good for one's soul. Until next time... Remembering you with prayers, love and rainbows. – Stacey Dean
